Here is an announcement regarding the next version of the NAVIGON Roadmap. The next update, already available on Google Play, will feature an enhanced OpenStreetMaps (OSM) integration. According to the Roadmap, the updated navigation system will let users easily discover new points of interest (POIs) on the street. This navigation is based on modern technologies like OSM mapping. The change from a former offline database to such an alternative for improved navigation is an advantage, as is the up-to-date tracking of the latest events on the road. You can save your progress for more than one route, and easily restore your locations, if required. All in all, this update will benefit drivers and passengers alike. NAVIGON Roadmap update gives you three features:- Route planner. Start your trip and select the route to a destination. The route planner will let you know about the roads and POIs in between, and allows you to easily calculate your travel time. With the Virtual Stops function, the planner takes your destination location and the driving directions into account, and will load the closest POIs along the way. Map-centric guidance and navigation. Improved routing. Select the waypoint you want your navigation to follow for the best route, and get a list of the nearest POIs. A Google Satellite view makes it easy to quickly assess the scene for obstructions. GPS 2.0. GPS Navigator. The new features will be available in the next version of NAVIGON. Keep up to date!
